

AEE Core Areas AEE/AYFCE Level Courses

Courses Required of AEE Graduate Students (1 credit)

AEE/AYFCE 590 (1) Colloquium (Meets PSU SARI requirement).

Youth and Family (15 credits) A minimum of nine credits must be selected from the following courses. [Six credits of the 15 required may be taken outside the AEE department.]

AYFCE 438 (3) Living in an Increasingly Diverse Society

AYFCE 439 (3) Contemporary Youth Issues

AYFCE 535 (3) Youth Civic Development

AYFCE 840 (3) Applied Youth Development

AYFCE 470 (3) Consumer and Financial Skills

AYFCE 845 (3) Intergenerational Programs and Practices

AYFCE 597 (3) Management of Community Based Organizations on Behalf of Children, Youth, and Families [currently being developed]

Community leadership (9 credits) All nine credits must be selected from the following courses.

AEE 440 (3) Communications Methods and Media

AEE 450 (3) Program Design and Delivery

AEE 460 (3) Foundations of Leadership Development

AEE 465 (3) Leadership Practices: Power, Influence, and Impact

AEE 511 (3) Youth Leadership Development in Agriculture Sciences

AEE 515 (3) Engagement Through Outreach Scholarship in Higher Education

AYFCE 550 (3) Program Development & Evaluation in Youth, Families, and Communities

AYFCE 555 (3) Volunteer Program Management

AEE/CEDEV/R SOC 505 (3) Leadership Development

Research and statistics (3-6 credits [thesis requires 6]) All credits are to be selected from among the following courses.

AEE 509 (3) Contemporary Research Issues in AEE

AEE 520 (3) Scientific Methods

AEE 521 (3) Basic Applied Data Analysis

AG 400 (3) Statistics in Life Sciences

RSOC 522 (1) Data Analysis in Rural Sociology

EDPSY 400 (3) Introduction to Statistics in Education Research

AEE 597C (3) Qualitative Research Methods

Required Internship (1-3 credits)

AYFCE 595 (1-3) Internship

Culminating Experience or Thesis (3-6 credits)

AYFCE 596 (3) Culminating Experience - or - AYFCE 600 (6) Thesis

Note: • Mix of 400-, 500- or higher-level courses meet core requirements for an AEE master's program.

• Only 500-level or higher courses meet core requirements for an AEE doctoral program.